SERIOUS SHOOTING AFFAIR

In Roanoke Rapids Saturday Morning, Albert Smith Shot and Seriously Wounded by Aleck Campbell. Row Started Over a Chicken.

On last Saturday morning what came very near being a tragedy was precipitated by an altercation over a chicken.

Aleck Campbell, nineteen years old and apparently not extraordinary bright, went over to the residence of Mrs. C. C. Cook, who lives on Bunker's Hill, early Saturday morning to see about one of his mother's chickens which he claimed had been killed by Mrs. Cook. After some altercation, Mrs. Cook paid him for the chicken and he started away from the house.

As he started to leave some one of a group of boys standing in the yard asked him how he knew the chicken belonged to his mother. A hot argument ensued, during which Campbell drew his pistol, which he stated he had carried with him as he expected trouble, and fired point blank at Albert Smith. He fired a second shot a few seconds later which struck the ground at his feet. Campbell claims the second shot was fired by accident.

An examination of the pistol showed that only two of the chambers had cartridges in them.

Campbell left shortly after the shooting and started up town. He was met about half way by Chief Baird and placed under arrest. He made no resistance.

Smith was taken as soon as possible after the shooting to the Roanoke Rapids Hospital. Examination showed that the bullet had entered his breast and lodged in the base of his left lung. His condition for a while was regarded as extremely serious but latest reports state that he is getting along nicely and will probably soon recover.

Campbell, through his attorney, waived preliminary hearing Saturday and was committed to Halifax jail until the August term of the Superior Court under five thousand dollars bond.

Eight persons witnessed the shooting and the statements of the majority of them agree that the shooting was absolutely unjustified. Campbell claims that he acted in self defense and states that he retreated several feet after he had drawn his pistol and made repeated requests to Smith not to advance upon him.

Prof. F. S. Aldridge, of Durham was a visitor here on last Tuesday in the interests of the Trinity Park High School.

Mr. Roland James is out of town this week on his vacation.

Shute--Brown

Mr. Fred Macon Shute, of Roanoke Rapids, and Miss Mary Dare Brown, of Williamston, were married in Wilson on last Sunday evening. The marriage was quite a surprise to all of Mr. Shute's friends in Roanoke Rapids, the first intimation of the marriage coming to even his closest friends here with the published account in the News & Observer.

Mr. Shute left Roanoke Rapids last Saturday evening on one of his periodical visits to Williamston, his friends never dreaming that anything out of the ordinary was being planned. The following extract from the Williamston Enterprise, however, sheds additional light on the subject:

"Among the surprises which Williamston has had in the matrimonial line for the past few days, was the marriage of Miss Mary Dare Brown and Mr. Fred Macon Shute on Sunday night at Wilson. Mr. Shute arrived here Saturday night to visit Miss Brown to whom he has been engaged for months, and the marriage was being arranged to take place in October, but Sunday afternoon they decided to let the little blind god have his way, and so they in company with Mrs. J. B. Hopkins and Mr. Vernon Langley, uncle of the bride, went to Wilson on the latter's car, and at ten o'clock that evening were married, Rev. Mr. Chambliss, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Monday evening they arrived here and went to the home of the bride. Tuesday morning, Mr. Shute left for Roanoke Rapids, where he is employed and Mrs. Shute will follow him in a few days.

"The bride, who is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Brown, is one of the most attractive of the younger women in the town and has a host of friends here and elsewhere who wish her happiness in the new life, which she has entered. For the past year she has been a student at the East Carolina Training School.

"Mr. Shute is well known here where he has lived several years, having been manager of the Enterprise Publishing Company. Since January he has been with the Roanoke Rapids Herald and is winning success in his new field of labor. Friends here warmly congratulate him upon his good fortune both in business and marriage."

Mr. Shute is foreman of the Herald's Office and is a young man of exceptional ability and promise. He has made many friends since he has been here and they and the Herald's entire staff wish for him and his bride all prosperity and happiness.

Mrs. Shute is in Williamston with her people, but will come to her new home in Roanoke Rapids the early part of next week.

ROANOKE VALLEY LEAGUE

Batting Averages of Twelve Best Hitters, Batting has Slumped Sharply with all Teams during past Month on Account of Better Pitching and Fielding

The batting averages of the players in the Roanoke Valley League as computed to date from the official score book show a decided falling off in batting of practically all players during the last month. This is due probably to the pitchers getting wise to batters' weak spots and to better fielding work.

The twelve best batters in the league are as follows:

	AB	H	Ave.
Daniel, R. R.	42	500
Teague, P. M.	31	322
Hughes, R. R.	47	319
Hayes, R. R.	34	294
Ferrell, P. M.	61	279
Cunningham, R.	66	273
Floyd, R.	51	254
Mosher, P. M.	52	250
Hales, R. M.	16	4	.250
Johnson, R. M.	16	4	.250
Smith, R. R.	57	14	.245
C. Grimmer, R.	50	12	.240

The batting by teams, stands as follows:

	AB	H	Ave.
Patterson Mills:	430	91	.212
Roanoke Rapids:	366	76	.208
Roanoke Mills:	334	67	.207
Rosemary:	432	82	.190

In getting these averages the records of forty players were figured. All of the records figured were of those players who are now playing in the league.

How They Play Tomorrow

Roanoke Mills: vs Rosemary (first game)
Patterson Mills vs Roanoke Rapids

Patterson Mills vs Rosemary

A half hearted, one sided, wholly uninteresting game. Big Snotherly's arm was sore from the affects of his strenuous pitching against Suffolk on last Wednesday and Teague was put in the box for the Patterson Mills.

Teague's pitching was nothing like as bad as his support. Rosemary got six hits off him in the seven innings played but all of them were scattered and there was only one earned run made (sixth inning.) Thirteen errors were made by the Patterson Mills team in the six innings they played in the field.

Bland for Rosemary pitched a much better game than he did against Roanoke Rapids—allowing only two hits. At only one time during the game did the Patterson Mills get as far as third base. The game was called at the end of the Patterson Mills half of the seventh in order to allow the game between Roanoke Rapids and Roanoke Mills to proceed.

The features of the game were Bland's pitching, Gilliland's hitting and the all round work of Towle for the Patterson Mills. The work of Snotherly on second and Fitts on third proved particularly disastrous for the Patterson Mills team.
